Unstoppable: The Christmas Story

The Christmas Story is a demonstration of the unstoppable power of God and God's breaking forth amidst human's plans, human's errors and human's activities. As in the word unstoppable, our God and God's power is "impossible to stop: not capable of being halted, or not easily halted, or hindered".

When our Creator begins to move or speak, no human plan or effort can divert, contort, or alter God's movement, not even Satan himself. God provides this revelation that we should always remember that human efforts can only go so far and human efforts are limited. So you made a lot of mistakes, and are carrying around a pocket full of regrets. In the words of Rascal Flatts: Love is Unstoppable. There are things which require only divine intervention, miracles I wish to call them (supernatural occurrences). Throughout the birth narrative of Jesus, we see how the transformative power of God will always prevail. Knowing that our Lord's power is unstoppable, we should be liberated in the fact that many things in our lives will come to pass, despite the odds stacked against us, even when our faith have been shaken. For it was Jesus who said, "upon this rock I build my church and the gates of hell shall never come against it", meaning you and me. Many of us must learn to take spiritual authority and believe the statement of the bible...it shall surely come to pass... "When you find your faith shaken, get on your knees and dig deep, you can do what you think is impossible", because the God you know is Unstoppable.

Jesus birth is about transformation, breaking forth, and makes a difference for our lives. During this Christmas season we should be eager to adopt God's motto of, "Let it be". Let this Christmas be a time of enjoyment, laughter, and love. Let this Christmas create a thirst of sharing. Let this Christmas be a time that you lay aside the hindrances of this world that perplex your mind, and low apathy for Christ. Let this Christmas be a time to keep you from being bombarded from a self-reliant culture that does not need a Saviour. Don't allow the need to control and manipulation be a part of this Christmas celebration.

In Mathew 2, King Herod resented the blessing of the coming King in order that he might control, alter, or try to change God's promise to us, however it was King Herod's plan that killed him, living a life of misery, and still with all of his greatest tactic, Jesus Christ was still born in order to save us from ourselves.

Living life as a Christian will always produce its share of distraction, obstacles, and unforeseen challenges, however Christmas is a time to especially see how the infinite power and plans of God are unstoppable. Always remember, there are things in our life that are out of our control. Don't allow the real essence of Christmas to be stolen by the need to control things. Many people spend a lifetime unhappy trying to alter God's plan.

In Celebrating Christmas, remember that God has a plan for His church, His people, and His projects, and we are unable to get in the way of our Creator.
